Description:

Gigabyte Aorus AD27QD 1440p 27inch 144hz(refresh rate) IPS monitor. just purchased a month ago but decided i'd prefer a 240hz monitor instead. The monitor is fantastic HDR capable great color accuracy and great for gaming you can find it for $550+ still. id prefer if you have a method to pick up the monitor as it's way too heavy to carry around for too long. Also has a squaretrade protection plan for 2 years. price is firm
